A FEW WORDS FROM THE EDITORS

Dear Voice of Clear Light Friends,

We would like to welcome all the new subscribers and also thank the many supporters and friends of VOCL that we've gained over the years. This issue begins our 7th year as editors! Our love of this work in putting together the monthly newsletter for Ligmincha Institute with Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche's blessing and guidance continues to grow and inspire us. We are happy to contribute in this way, sharing excerpts of Rinpoche's oral teachings, inspirations from sangha and news and information about future teachings, as well as listings of new items available through Ligmincha's popular Bookstore and Tibet Shop - all perfect ways to connect our worldwide sangha. Our teacher's deep commitment and ceaseless efforts on behalf of us all were abundantly apparent in his latest live Internet teachings, a brand new way to connect us all to the dharma. Stay tuned for more!

Every other month the Voice of Clear Light serves as an "Announcements" issue, informing everyone about upcoming retreats and other news of interest from Ligmincha. On the months between, the Voice of Clear Light features excerpts of our teachers' oral and written teachings, as well as interviews and a question-and-answer column. So we begin the year with this Announcements Issue, filled with wonderful retreat listings and news.

Our lives have changed forever through our connection to our teacher and the Bon tradition, and we find great happiness in this work for Rinpoche. We wish continued growth and peace in this new year to Ligmincha Institute, a long life to Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche, and health and happiness to all of our dharma brothers and sisters around the world!

Happiest of 2009 in Bon!

Aline and Jeff Fisher

AN INVITATION FROM TENZIN WANGYAL RINPOCHE: SUMMER DZOGCHEN TEACHINGS

Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche extends a personal invitation to both new and current students to join him for the complete cycle of A-Tri dzogchen teachings, this summer at Ligmincha's Serenity Ridge retreat center in Nelson County, Va. Tenzin Rinpoche's letter of invitation follows:

Joyful greetings to everyone,

My family and I send our prayers and good wishes to all of you.

As the world is going through these challenging times of war and economic crisis, I hope your meditation practice and spiritual pursuits are right there to support you in dealing with any challenges you are now facing individually.

During difficult moments, engaging with the practice on one's own or during group retreat is a meaningful way to address the needs of the soul and the heart. Therefore, I particularly wish to invite all of you to the 2009 annual summer retreat.

In recent weeks I have seen an amazing response from many people who feel driven to attend and seriously follow the cycle of Bon dzogchen teachings from the Experiential Transmission of Zhang Zhung, which is offered over a period of several years during our winter retreats at Serenity Ridge in Nelson County, Virginia. I am very happy to see this level of enthusiasm and commitment to these important teachings.

As we are unable to accommodate everybody who wishes to come to our winter retreat, one solution is to attend the A-Tri dzogchen teachings this summer. If you can participate in all three weeks of the summer retreat (June 28 through July 18), you will experience in a relatively short time span the entire 15-part cycle of A-Tri dzogchen teachings. As a complete path to enlightenment, the A-Tri teachings are just as important as the Experiential Transmission teachings; they comprise everything from the ngondro (foundational practices) to preparation for dark retreat. They are an excellent introduction for beginners, and they also support and complement the ongoing study of the Experiential Transmission teachings. Therefore, I strongly recommend trying to come to all three weeks if possible.

The A-Tri teachings are from one of three major lineages of dzogchen teachings from the Bon Buddhist tradition of Tibet; the other two are the Zhang Zhung Nyen Gyu and Dzogchen lineages. They give very simple, clear and direct instructions for integrating spiritual practice through the three doors of body, speech and mind.

I hope you will be able to join us at Serenity Ridge this summer.

With all my love and best wishes,

Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche

Healing Through Love and Wisdom: The Practice of Sherap Chamma

With Marcy Vaughn

The teachings of Sherap Chamma (Wisdom Loving Mother) comprise one of the most important tantric cycles of the ancient Bon Buddhist tradition. Sherap Chamma, understood as the primordial female energy from which existence arises, is the source both of wisdom and of the healing medicine of compassion and love. In this retreat, participants will learn a beautiful and simple meditation practice enabling them to connect directly with the divine feminine energy. Working with the support of the group, those on retreat will create an environment to promote profound healing of the physical, energetic/emotional, and spiritual dimensions of life. Through visualization, the sound of mantra, and deep silence, the practice of Sherap Chamma guides each person to deeply connect with his or her innate wisdom and with the love and compassion that naturally radiate from that wisdom. We warmly welcome new and experienced practitioners to this retreat.

Retreat cost: $275 received by January 22; $325 received after January 22

Prayer Flag Workshop: Print Your Own Bonpo Prayer Flags

With Lharila Kalsang Nyima and Geshe Tenzin Yeshe

The colorful prayer flags flown by the Tibetan people for many centuries are believed to have originated in the Tibetan Bon tradition. The flags are printed with prayers and auspicious symbols on cloth whose colors represent the five natural elements. When raised, these flags create an uplifting energy and transmit blessings, protection and healing power to all corners of the universe.

During this workshop Lharila Kalsang Nyima and Geshe Tenzin Yeshe will guide students in the traditional method of printing prayer flags on colored cloth using carved wooden blocks. They will explain how to raise the flags with the right mindset both inside the home and outdoors, where the flags typically are hung to blow in the breeze until they disintegrate in the elements. This stand-alone workshop serves as an ideal prelude to the retreat that follows with Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche, "Riding the Wind Horse of Good Fortune," during which participants will learn more about the rituals for raising prayer flags.

Retreat cost: $125 (materials fee is extra).

Riding the Wind Horse of Good Fortune: Increasing Your Inner Strength and Prosperity

With Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche

During these troubled times on earth, many of us are suffering from limited support not only from the human realm but also from the world of nature and the spirits. The ancient Tibetan rituals of the wind horse provide a way to communicate clearly and directly with the spirits of nature in order to gain their support and raise our prosperity, personal power and good fortune. This April at Ligmincha Institute's Serenity Ridge retreat center, amid the mountains of central Virginia, Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche will teach shamanic rituals that Tibetans have practiced for thousands of years and which have their origins in the Bon tradition, the indigenous spiritual tradition of Tibet. This is an opportunity for participants to gain knowledge of practices such as Sang Cho and the raising of prayer flags, while intimately connecting with and raising the uplifting qualities and energies engendered by these powerful rituals. In his 20 years of living and teaching in the West, Tenzin Rinpoche has become renowned for his ability to convey the ancient wisdom of Bon Buddhism in a way that is immediately relevant, inspiring, and applicable to the needs of modern Western students. Tenzin Rinpoche invites both new students and those who have already participated in these rituals to join him at Serenity Ridge in this annual opportunity for healing. Retreat cost: $450 received by March 4; $525 received after March 4. Please visit Ligmincha's Web site for further information and to register:

The Six Lokas Purification Practice

A dzogchen retreat with Khenpo Tenpa Yungdrung Rinpoche

We are pleased to announce that Khenpo Tenpa Yungdrung Rinpoche, the abbot of Triten Norbutse Monastery, Kathmandu, Nepal, will again be teaching at Serenity Ridge this year. Through the power of the Meditation of the Six Lokas one relates to the emotional afflictions associated with each of the six realms of cyclic existence and purifies them in one's own life. These afflictions are the six destructive emotions that are the obstacles to enlightenment: anger, greed, ignorance, jealousy, pride, and pleasurable distraction. During this retreat Khen Rinpoche will explain how mantra, imagery, and the base of contemplation can deeply purify the seeds of our karmic patterns and support the healing that comes from resting in one's true nature, the source of all joy and happiness. Khenpo Tenpa Yungdrung Rinpoche welcomes everyone to be with him at Serenity Ridge when he offers commentary, practice instructions, and transmission of the Meditation of the Six Lokas. Retreat cost: $450 received by March 25; $525 received after March 25

The Experiential Transmission of Zhang Zhung, Part One: Ngondro - Dzogchen Foundational Practices

With Ponlop Trinley Nyima Rinpoche

This year we are again very fortunate to have Ponlop Trinley Nyima Rinpoche, the head teacher at Menri Monastery, India, teaching these beautiful and essential practices to us. The Ngondro, Part 1 of the Experiential Transmission of Zhang Zhung, is the entrance to a cycle of Bon dzogchen, or "Great Perfection," teachings, which until the past decade were part of a secret transmission passed one-to-one from master to student. The ngondro teachings, a complete set of practices in themselves, offer instructions for taming, purifying, and perfecting oneself; and are the prerequisite for further study of the Experiential Transmission of Zhang Zhung. Although the practices that make up the ngondro are called preliminary or foundational practices, many practitioners adopt them as their main practice and complete the nine parts several times over the course of a lifetime. Within each of these beautiful and powerful practices is contained the entire path to liberation. The ngondro is the traditional method that provides a solid foundation of understanding and experience upon which a strong spiritual life can be developed. The practices of the ngondro can accompany the practitioner through the years like a lifelong friend. Students who attend this Ngondro retreat with Ponlop Rinpoche will be eligible to study Part 2 of the Experiential Transmission of Zhang Zhung with Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche at our 2009 winter retreat. Retreat cost (includes meals): $450 received by April 22; $525 received after April 22

Ngondro Practice Retreat

Practice leader to be announced

Students who have received ngondro teachings and transmission are warmly invited to attend this practice retreat, which will focus on the practice of ngondro. This retreat will take place concurrently with the ngondro retreat with Ponlop Trinley Nyima Rinpoche (above); practitioners will meet in the Garuda House meditation room.

Tenzin Rinpoche highly recommends this intensive practice retreat for those students who received the ngondro teachings from him at the 2008 winter retreat as well as for other students who have received ngondro transmission in recent years and are practicing in preparation for the Part 2 teachings of the Experiential Transmission in December 2009.

The ngondro practice retreat offers a wonderful opportunity to experience the benefits of group practice within the boundary of our blessed and protected retreat land. The presence of the Ponlop Rinpoche and other students engaged in study and practice of the ngondro will add a powerful support for deep engagement with these beautiful and essential foundational practices of our lineage.

Special practice retreat price: $225.

Summer Retreat 2009: A-Tri Dzogchen

With Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche

This summer, at Ligmincha Institute's Serenity Ridge Retreat Center, Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche will present the complete (15-part) cycle of A-Tri dzogchen teachings. This is the first time that Tenzin Rinpoche will teach this complete cycle in the West during a single retreat. The A-Tri teachings are from one of three major lineages of dzogchen teachings from the Bon Buddhist tradition of Tibet (the two others are the Zhang Zhung Nyen Gyu and Dzogchen lineages). They present very simple, clear and direct instructions for integrating spiritual practice through the three doors of body, speech and mind. Tenzin Rinpoche feels that the three-week format of the summer retreat will create ideal conditions for an in-depth study of this powerful dzogchen system of mind training. Week 1 will focus on practices to purify and awaken awareness of the nature of mind through the body; Week 2 through speech; and Week 3 through the mind. The A-Tri teachings are a way to receive a full cycle of dzogchen teachings in a relatively short time (three weeks, rather than many months or years). These teachings not only are a great introduction for beginners, they also complement study of the Experiential Transmission system from which Tenzin Rinpoche teaches each winter.

Because of the integrated nature of these teachings and the manner in which each week will build on the one before, Rinpoche strongly recommends that people come to all three weeks so they can receive the complete cycle. If this is not possible, Rinpoche suggests you come to at least two weeks. If you are new to Serenity Ridge, or able to come for only one week, Rinpoche recommends that you come to the first week, when an in-depth explanation of the practices will be offered. It is Tenzin Rinpoche's sincere wish that through this intensive study and practice opportunity, each student will find his or her own door to a life that is physically healthy, energetically vital and spiritually fulfilling.

Retreat cost (includes meals; accommodations are available): Week 1 and Week 3: $500 received by May 11; $575 received after May 11.

Week 2 (includes auction banquet): $515 by May 11; $590 received after May 11.

RETREAT SURVEY FOR CHAMMA LING RETREAT CENTER IN COLORADO

Practice Retreat with Lharila Kalsang Nyima

August or September, 2009

We are currently surveying our community to choose our next practice retreat topic. The purpose of our practice retreat series is to provide the time and space with a qualified teacher to deepen one's practice of a specific meditation. There will be at least four formal practice sessions each day, and many opportunities to clarify the practices with the teacher. Our practice retreats are intimate, with no more than 20 participants, and supported by the sacred space of our retreat center nestled in the Sangre de Christo mountains in Colorado.

Here are some of the comments from participants of Lharila's 2008 retreat: "EXCELLENT! I hope there will be more retreats in the future." "The small group and the quiet setting were perfect for this retreat." "Lharila Rinpoche was delightful..."

Please visit our Web site, chammaling.org, to complete our brief survey and help shape the future of our programs. You will find the link on the home page, along with information about our upcoming retreats with Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche and Alejandro Chaoul-Reich.
