

Voice of Clear Light

Volume 14, Number 2 / April 2014

‘Becoming a Geshe’

Visit Sangha Member Raven Cypress Wood’s Website on Yungdrung Bon

Ligmincha's Facebook page recently shared Raven Cypress Wood's article, "Becoming a Geshe" about the ancient traditions of Yungdrung Bon in Tibet, featured on her blog, "Nine Ways." This blog website developed from her interest in sharing and helping make these teachings more accessible to students. She has been working on translating prayers and texts from Tibetan into English, and she has endeavored to gain a deeper understanding of the Nine Ways of Bon within an historical, religious and cultural context.

Read Raven's article, "Becoming a Geshe" and the many other topics on Yungdrung Bon, as well as view the many beautiful pictures at her unique and inspiring blog . Thank you, Raven!

Gain a deeper experience of this text and learn how to use this traditional method of divination, attend a special causal vehicle retreat, with Geshe Nyima Kunchap at Serenity Ridge on May 21–25.

Learn more and register