A new series of short videos by Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche on the topic of Enlightened Leadership is now available on Ligmincha YouTube. Rinpoche especially encourages sangha members throughout the world to view the videos.

The nine videos range in length from about three to seven minutes each and cover the following topics:

- Introduction
- What is Enlightened Leadership?
- Self-Realization Through Service
- Making Decisions from the Space of Awareness
- Serving with Joy
- With Appreciation to Ligmincha International
- Staying Connected
- Preserving Bon
- Dharma Practice and Service

The videos also can serve as a preface to this year's Spring Retreat at Serenity Ridge, whose topic is "Enlightened Leadership." The three-day retreat will be held from April 1–3. As we awaken to our true nature, each one of us can become an agent of change that benefits ourselves, others and society. Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche will guide participants in engaging in dzogchen meditation practices that offer direct instruction to access the spaciousness of being.
