

Serenity Ridge: Expanding to Meet Practitioners' Needs

Groundbreaking Happens This Month

Rob Patzig, president of Ligmincha International, writes about the new building planned to meet the growing needs of Serenity Ridge Retreat Center, headquarters of Ligmincha International, located in Nelson County, Virginia.

Serenity Ridge, Ligmincha International's headquarters and oldest retreat center, is preparing for major change. At this summer's retreat, a groundbreaking ceremony for a new building will take place on June 25 at 10:30 a.m. Construction will begin in November.

Rob Patzig

The front entrance to the new building

Meeting of the Building Committee

During the fall of 2015, the building committee has been working on a plan to expand the facility with a new wing, a new entrance, and a new parking lot. The plan is to expand the facility with a new wing, a new entrance, and a new parking lot. The plan is to expand the facility with a new wing, a new entrance, and a new parking lot.

View our YouTube video about the new building.